Suspect in Home Invasion Robbery Arrested

Sarasota County Sheriff's Deputies have arrested Justin Bachner, W/M, DOB 11/8/85, for his role in a Home Invasion Robbery with a Firearm which occurred June 26, 2009 at 7868 Holiday Drive, Sarasota.

Late Tuesday night, deputies responded to a Crimestoppers tip. The caller was reporting Bachner's whereabouts based on a recent news report featuring Bachner's picture and wanted person information. Deputies ended up finding Bachner hiding in the closet of a residence on Dueby Street in Sarasota. Bachner was taken into custody on the active warrant issued for his arrest.

The tip along with the coordinated effort and teamwork involving several units from the Sarasota County Sheriff's Office led to Bachner's capture, who detectives say was half of the masked pair that tied up the victim at gunpoint and stole items from her home. The other two suspects involved in the case were arrested one day earlier. On that same day, detectives also executed a search warrant at Bachner's residence during which detectives recovered items stolen from the victim, including two shotguns.
