Deputy Involved Shooting

At approximately 3:00 p.m. today, Sarasota County Sheriff's deputies responded to a report by a third party caller of a disturbance at 1222 Cattlemen Road, Sarasota. The caller reported that at least one individual was armed with a gun.

Two deputies approached the house. Ultimately one of the deputies fired an undetermined number of rounds. Neither deputy was injured. At least one weapon was found at the incident location.

Two subjects were transported to the hospital with non-life threatening injuries. A third subject who ran from the scene was located a few blocks away and is being interviewed by detectives.

Sheriff's Office detectives are speaking with witnesses and processing the scene.

Per standard procedure, the deputy who fired his weapon is on paid administrative leave. More information will be made available as the investigation progresses.
